

“Specifics of infection control measures in penitentiaries”

TRAINING PROGRAMME

Venue: WHO Collaborative Centre on prevention and control of tuberculosis in prisons

Date: 15.12.2017

Organizer: MMD MoJ

Lecturers: I.Mammadova , M.Amiraslanov, F.Mammadov

Target audience: Penitentiary Facilities Supervisors

Overall Goal: To strengthen knowledge on prevention of TB transmission

Objectives:

- Inform participants about tuberculosis, its transmission ways, prevention of infection, recommendations for TB/HIV preventive measures implemented in PS;
- Inform participants about detection strategies for TB, carrying out within PS, infection control measures and their impact to transmission of infection;
- Point the role of PS officers in implementation of TB Control Programme in PS activities.

Expected outcome:

By the end of the course each participant will be informed about tuberculosis and the role of PS officers in implementation of TB preventive measures.

By the end of the course each participant will know:

- TB transmission ways;
- Occupational risks;
- Significance of infection control measures in prevention of affection transmission;
- Private and general hygiene measures;
- Self-protection process.

Will be able to:

- Issue regimen and operational measures in safety manner;
- Use individual means for infection control;
- Identify symptoms of disease.